Jordan Williams Awarded Sons of Norway Foundation's Astrid G. Cates Scholarship

Minneapolis, June 26, 2007 – Jordan Williams of Arlington, WA, was awarded a Sons of Norway's Astrid G. Cates scholarship, given to Sons of Norway members and their families.

Williams is a Running Start student at Everett Community College in Washington State who plans on transferring to Corban College in Salem, Oregon this coming Fall where he will pursue a degree in Elementary Education. “It is very exciting to be one step closer to becoming an elementary school teacher. Working with underprivileged children is a dream of mine. In addition, I am hoping to do some mission work before settling down into a full-time job after college” said Williams, who is a member of Normanna Lodge 2-003.

Sons of Norway Foundation Director Cindy Olson said, “The Sons of Norway Foundation has proudly awarded educational scholarships for over 40 years. Astrid Cates and Myrtle Beinhauer, Sons of Norway members, left the Foundation bequests to be used to further improve our communities through education. The Foundation believes in providing these opportunities to strengthen our communities and help us protect Norwegian heritage and culture for future generations. The 2007 recipient Jordan Williams embodies these goals.”
