Ashley Colberg Awarded the Sons of Norway Foundation's King Olav V Norwegian- American Scholarship

Minneapolis, June 26, 2008 – Ashley Colberg a University of Minnesota student, was awarded a Sons of Norway Foundation King Olav V Norwegian-American Scholarship, given to students with a plan of study focusing on Norwegian heritage or modern Norway at an institution of higher learning.

Colberg is a second-year student in the Honors College of Liberal Arts at the University of Minnesota. She is on a Pre-Med track and has declared a Scandinavian Languages and Finnish major with a concentration in Norwegian Languages. She will be going to Norway in August to study abroad in the west-coast city of Bergen for the Fall Semester. There she will be taking Norwegian history and culture courses along with higher level language courses.

She chose to study abroad because of her Norwegian heritage, being the granddaughter of two Norwegian immigrants who moved to Chicago, Il from Kristiansand Norway. Sons of Norway Foundation Director Cindy Olson said, “The Sons of Norway Foundation has proudly awarded educational scholarships since 1966. We strive to improve our communities through education while preserving our Norwegian culture and heritage for future generations. The King Olav V Norwegian-American scholarship program ensures this, while promoting global citizenship, by encouraging American students to study Norwegian culture and Norwegian citizens to study American culture. We are proud to have 2008 recipient Ashley Colberg as one of our scholars.”

His Royal Majesty, King Olav V of Norway, allowed the Sons of Norway Foundation to use his name in establishing a fund to promote cultural exchange between Norway and North America. The fund welcomes both Norwegian and North American applicants, 18 years of age or older.

The Sons of Norway Foundation celebrates culture and expands the horizons of our members by awarding scholarships and grants to promote the heritage and culture of Norway, and provides assistance to our members, lodges and their communities. Since 1966 we have awarded over 2,000 scholarships and more than 400 grants totaling over $1 million.
