Allison Krause Awarded the Sons of Norway Foundation's King Olav V Norwegian- American Scholarship

Minneapolis, June 26, 2008 – Allison Krause of Minot, ND, was awarded a Sons of Norway Foundation King Olav V Norwegian-American Scholarship, given to students with a plan of study focusing on Norwegian heritage or modern Norway at an institution of higher learning.

Krause is a 20 year old Philosophy major from Minot, ND. She enjoys singing, reading, and computers. In high school, she was involved in theater and swimming and in the summers of '04 and '05 attended Junior Statesmen Summer School at Georgetown and Princeton respectively.

Allison just finished a semester of study abroad at the American College of Norway in Moss, Norway. This fall, she will resume her studies at the University of North Dakota where she is a Presidential Scholar, in the Honors Program and Concert Choir, and this year made the Dean's List. She is in her Junior year of college. Allison is a member of Thor 4-067.

Sons of Norway Foundation Director Cindy Olson said, "The Sons of Norway Foundation has proudly awarded educational scholarships since 1966. We strive to improve our communities through education while preserving our Norwegian culture and heritage for future generations. The King Olav V Norwegian-American scholarship program ensures this, while promoting global citizenship, by encouraging American students to study Norwegian culture and Norwegian citizens to study American culture. We are proud to have 2008 recipient Allison Krause as one of our scholars.”

His Royal Majesty, King Olav V of Norway, allowed the Sons of Norway Foundation to use his name in establishing a fund to promote cultural exchange between Norway and North America. The fund welcomes both Norwegian and North American applicants, 18 years of age or older.

The Sons of Norway Foundation celebrates culture and expands the horizons of our members by awarding scholarships and grants to promote the heritage and culture of Norway, and provides assistance to our members, lodges and their communities. Since 1966 we have awarded over 2,000 scholarships and more than 400 grants totaling over $1 million.
