Erin Lunde Awarded the Sons of Norway Foundation's King Olav V Norwegian- American Scholarship

Minneapolis, June 26, 2008 – Erin Lunde of Cooperstown, ND, was awarded a Sons of Norway Foundation King Olav V Norwegian-American Scholarship, given to students with a plan of study focusing on Norwegian heritage or modern Norway at an institution of higher learning.

Lunde will be a junior next year at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa. She is an English major with academic interests also in Scandinavian Studies and Environmental Studies. Erin hopes to learn more about the Norwegian view of the outdoors as she studies Outdoor Life, Culture, and Ecophilosophy at Telemark University College in Bø next fall. Erin is excited about the opportunity to study in Norway as she grew up very aware of her Norwegian heritage in her hometown of Cooperstown, North Dakota, where she is a member of the Cooperstown Lodge 4-480.

Sons of Norway Foundation Director Cindy Olson said, “The Sons of Norway Foundation has proudly awarded educational scholarships since 1966. We strive to improve our communities through education while preserving our Norwegian culture and heritage for future generations. The King Olav V Norwegian-American scholarship program ensures this, while promoting global citizenship, by encouraging American students to study Norwegian culture and Norwegian citizens to study American culture. We are proud to have 2008 recipient Erin Lunde as one of our scholars.”

His Royal Majesty, King Olav V of Norway, allowed the Sons of Norway Foundation to use his name in establishing a fund to promote cultural exchange between Norway and North America. The fund welcomes both Norwegian and North American applicants, 18 years of age or older.

The Sons of Norway Foundation celebrates culture and expands the horizons of our members by awarding scholarships and grants to promote the heritage and culture of Norway, and provides assistance to our members, lodges and their communities. Since 1966 we have awarded over 2,000 scholarships and more than 400 grants totaling over $1 million.
