Sarah Parker Awarded the Sons of Norway Foundation's King Olav V Norwegian- American Scholarship

Minneapolis, June 26, 2008 – Sarah Parker a University of Minnesota student, was awarded a Sons of Norway Foundation King Olav V Norwegian-American Scholarship, given to students with a plan of study focusing on Norwegian heritage or modern Norway at an institution of higher learning.

Parker is a sophomore at the University of Minnesota in Neuroscience and Scandinavian studies, intending to go medical school. “I have always been captivated by my Norwegian ancestry, with my mother’s family all hailing from Norway. I am eager for this opportunity to be able to appreciate my own heritage.”

She will be participating the Scandinavian Urban Studies Team, organized by HECUA, in the fall and will be learning about Norway’s rich history as well as modern Norway.

Sons of Norway Foundation Director Cindy Olson said, “The Sons of Norway Foundation has proudly awarded educational scholarships since 1966. We strive to improve our communities through education while preserving our Norwegian culture and heritage for future generations. The King Olav V Norwegian-American scholarship program ensures this, while promoting global citizenship, by encouraging American students to study Norwegian culture and Norwegian citizens to study American culture. We are proud to have 2008 recipient Sarah Parker as one of our scholars.”
